How to Apply to United Nations Truce Supervision Organization (UNTSO) vacancies:

All applicants are strongly encouraged to apply online.

When you visit the UNTSO Website, <http://untso.unmissions.org>, go to the UNTSO Job Vacancies page where all available vacancies will be listed in the webpage.

1. To start the application process, applicants must download a Personal History "P.11" form. Note: Any other form of application will not be accepted.
2. Once the download is finished, complete and save your Personal History Form and then e-mail a signed copy to the following e-mail address: untso_staffing@un.org.
3. In completing the P.11 form, please note that all fields must be completed accurately to the best of your knowledge. Additionally, you are encouraged to fill all of the fields to best convey your personal ambitions.
4. Your application will be screened and evaluated against the requirements as specified in the particular vacancy and your name may be put forward for that specific announcement only.
5. In view of the high volume of applications received, only those applicants who are included in the roster will be notified.

At your interview

The United Nations' greatest asset is the quality of its staff. To ensure that the very best people join the UN team we use a competency based interview process. Competency based interviews are also called "behavioral interviews" or "criterion based interviews." Such interviews are based on the concept that past behavior and experience is the best indicator of future performance. In other words, your history tells a story about you: your talents, skills, abilities, knowledge and actual experience in handling a variety of situations.
